

leo

He always answers my call
Bringing his smile
Honey, his love conquers all
He seems to love everyone
Running, dancing, he has his own sense of fun

Leo laughs and people love him
Leo with the healing heart
Strangers stop to meet him, standing handsome and so debonair
Leo, my love from the start
I never doubt he is there

Leo is a delight
He doesn't know
How he makes everything right
Playful, loving, gorgeous dear
He's the one who everyone wants to be near

Leo laughs and people love him
Leo with the healing heart
Strangers stop to meet him, standing handsome and so debonair
Leo, my love from the start
I never doubt he is there
