

home

The warmth of your breath as you kiss my neck
The weight of your head leaning next to mine
A respite in the eye of the storm
When I'm with you it feels like home

The quizzical way that you look at me
Yet profound knowing in your eyes
You see the good I cannot see
When I'm with you it feels like home

You and I took a while To survey where our path leads

We share a bond that is only ours
My soul meets yours in that quiet place
When I am held in your embrace
When I'm with you it feels like home

With you, I'm finally coming home
